Dear Your Excellency:
Just
to greet you on Friday March 8, 1935, with my letter. Not so long ago in deep prayer I prayed that God through the intercession of my mother

Sentence Sermons

By the Rev. ROY L. SMITH

It Is Fortunate—

- To have eyes, but more fortunate to have vision.
- To have ears, but more fortunate to have discrimination.
- To have feet, but more fortunate to be on the highway of honor.
- To have hands, but more fortunate to be doing useful work.
- To have hope, but more fortunate to have faith to build hope on.
- To have life, but more fortunate to have something to live for.
- To have fame, but more fortunate to have a character that can endure fame.

Is it any wonder Rev.
Fr. Cronin said to me right after her death in the corridor of the Carney hospital. You that, Rev. Fr. Neil Cronin quoted as a St. in Heaven and that isn't stepping over St. Patrick she having quoted you as First Mayor

Mfg. by Tichnor Bros., Inc., Boston, Mass.

City Hall, Boston, Mass.

A fine structure built throughout of granite. In the foreground may be seen the statue of Benjamin Franklin. And a beautiful lawn, which beautifies this spot, although it is situated in one of the busiest and most expensive sections of the city.

This card I found among my Mother's relics. I thought you might like it.
